Our May 3rd meeting, "Getting Students to Compose", will be presented by Christopher Goldston. He holds a Master of Music degree in piano performance and pedagogy from Northwestern University, and a Bachelor of Music degree in piano performance from the University of North Carolina--Greensboro. He lives in Chicago, and teaches at Sherwood Conservatory of Music and Harper College.

In 1991, Mr. Goldston received the National Federation of Music Clubs Lynn Freeman Olson Composition Award for his first composition, Night Train. Since then he has written numerous pieces for piano, voice, and chamber ensemble, including his Thesis for Wind Quintet, which won the 1993 MTNA Composition Contest for North Carolina. Mr. Goldston has compositions published by Alfred Publishing Company and is now an exclusive author for the FJH Music Company.

Mr. Goldston enjoys composing and arranging pieces for his students. Many of them have also created pieces of their own under his guidance and have received top prizes in state and national competitions. Mr. Goldston has served as composition chair for the MTNA for Illinois, and currently, the East Central Division.

Please remember to bring a salad for the luncheon following our meeting.
