Joint Workshop at Pierce Chapel (change from previous announcement)

We are happy to announce that our February 25, 2010 workshop with Alvin and Alan Chow will be held at Pierce Chapel at Wheaton College from 9:30 am to 12:30 pm (not Trinity Church).

Alan Chow has this to say about the workshop: "Our desire would be to split the time: one half doing a piano duo/duet recital and lecture, with the other half a master class with student duet/duo teams. The title of the lecture will be Turning Double Trouble Into Twice As Nice: The Problems and Possibilities of Playing Four Hands at One and Two Pianos. We tentatively plan to play works by Rachmaninoff, Corigliano, Brahms and Milhaud."

The registration form and more information will follow in next month's newsletter.

TEACHING PIECES I CAN'T LIVE WITHOUT!
From John Zimmerman

I am aware of a LOT of pieces I cannot live without. These pieces are at many levels, because I teach college students at many levels. Some give senior recitals for professional music degrees. Others have trouble reading bass clef and playing hands together. I have non-music majors, piano majors, and music-majors having to pass basic piano proficiency. Almost all of my students studied with someone else before me, and they have preferences I must pay attention to. Here is a very short list of pieces I find extremely useful:

EARLY INTERMEDIATE:

- Clementi. Sonatina in C Major, Op. 36, No. 1. i. Allegro
- Bach. Prelude in C Major, Well-Tempered Clavier Vol. I, No. 1

INTERMEDIATE:

- Elmenreich. Spinning Song, Op. 14, No. 4.
- Caramia. Fascinatin' Rhythms. 5. Walkin' Cool

LATE INTERMEDIATE:

Bartok. Bulgarian Dance No. 2 (Mikrokosmos Vol. VI, No. 149)

EARLY ADVANCED:

- Bach. Sinfonia No. 11 in G Minor
- Grieg. Notturmo. Op. 54, No. 4
- Gershwin. Piano Prelude No. 1 (ed. Zizzo)

AIM Theory Examinations Information

November 2009

AIM Theory Examinations for Levels 3 -12 will take place on Saturday, November 21st from 8:00 A.M. to approximately 5:00 P.M. at Wheaton College. Students at these levels must take theory exams in order to participate in the AIM Performance Examinations on March 13, 2010. Teachers need to check for updated and accurate AIM Theory teaching materials.

Judges should plan to arrive about 20 – 30 minutes before their first scheduled exams. Judges should come to the office in Blanchard room 139 to pick up their judging packets and then take time to look over the exams they will be administering. If you are judging in one of the professors' studios, you will need to have the room unlocked by either Kathy or Melissa.

- Remember to bring pencils and food to share. You may also want to have your copy of the syllabus at hand in case any questions arise.
- Please remember to write comments and explain the scores you give.
- Don't forget to sign your name on the exams.

A few general reminders:

- Some fingerings have been given for sight reading examples on the Keyboard Skills pages. The student is not required to use this fingering. It is only a guideline. Whether or not they use the suggested fingering, the student's grade should not be affected. However, if fingering choices have affected the student's ability to play the piece, you may wish to comment on it.
- When performing the example for the Playback in levels 3 – 6, please do not count any preparation measures. Simply play the example, following the instructions on the judge's sheet.
- Please practice the dictation examples by playing a 5-finger pattern and tonic triad first for levels 3-6 and a scale and 4-note chord for levels 7 and above.
- No photocopies of music are allowed for the transposition element in Levels 4 and above. Students must bring original music to the exam that will be transposed to two keys. The student may not bring an AIM workbook for this. The pieces found in the workbook are fine to use, but the student must bring a legitimate score.
- All students will be taking a written exam as part of AIM Theory. Students may take the written test either before or after they complete the keyboard/aural skills portion of the test, though it may be advisable to take it after so that enough time is available to the student to finish the written test. The written test will be taken in a classroom in Blanchard Hall, Room 222. Students will not have access to a piano to complete the written test.
- Requests for schedule changes, except for cancellations, must be made in writing to Kathy Sbarboro by November 14th. If something comes up after that date, call Melissa at 630-665-4635 or email at mddalley@sbcglobal.net.
- Make-ups are highly discouraged unless it is absolutely necessary.

If you have any questions please contact Kathy Sbarboro (630-390-9677 or sbarboro.k@att.net) or Melissa Dalley (630-665-4635 or mddalley@sbcglobal.net)

Young Artists Auditions Saturday, February 6, 2010

The DSO strives to encourage serious study and musical excellence among young musicians through its annual Young Artists Auditions. This is an experience that has been designed to be rewarding as well as educational. Each entrant will be evaluated by experienced judges and will receive written comments and suggestions based on their individual performances.

Eligibility: The auditions are open to student musicians who currently attend high school or its equivalent within DuPage County (including Neuqua Valley H.S.) or live within the county and attend a high school or its equivalent in another part of the state. Eligible performers are singers, pianists and musicians who play instruments ordinarily found in a symphony orchestra for which there exists an orchestral accompaniment in print of the audition work. Previous First and Second Place Winners of the DSO Young Artists Auditions are ineligible to participate.

Audition Date and Location: The DSO's Young Artists Auditions will be held on Saturday, February 6, 2010 at Steinway of Chicago, 1205-A Butterfield Road in Downers Grove. Each entrant will be notified in advance by e-mail of his or her specific audition time.

1. All entrants are required to perform from memory.
2. Three copies of the music must be given to the judges at the time of the audition. One copy must be an original.
3. Accompaniment is required. In addition, all entrants must also provide their own accompanist.
4. Each entrant will be limited to approximately 10 minutes of playing time.
5. Pianists who audition as soloists must also provide a second pianist to perform the orchestral accompaniment.
6. Only the entrant, accompanist and a page-turner (if necessary) will be allowed in the room while the auditions are in progress.

Repertoire: The audition selection must be chosen from the standard orchestral repertoire and is subject to approval by the Music Director prior to the competition. Orchestra parts must be available for rental or purchase by the DuPage Symphony Orchestra.

Awards: The First Place Winner will receive a cash award of $500 and the opportunity to appear as a soloist with the DuPage Symphony Orchestra during the 8:00 p.m. concert on Saturday, March 20, 2010.
